Denim Day 2010

APRIL 21
OAKLAND COUNTY

Denim Day commemorates a case in Italy when a rapist was set free because his victim was wearing such tight jeans that the judge decided she must have consented to the attack. This incident serves as a reminder that there are still many myths floating around about rape. Nothing is an invitation or an excuse for sexual violence- not tight jeans, not red lipstick, not a wink, nothing. Wear jeans on April 21st. Tell people why. If you would like to involve your business or school, or for more information, please contact Jennifer Parker at 248.334.1284 or email jparker@haven-oakland.org.
