HAVEN's mission and therefore our services and programs focus on both treatment and on prevention. We know that if we are ever to reach the goal of eliminating domestic violence and sexual assault that we need to focus our resources on prevention education, knowing that we must reach out to more and more young children and teens. Unfortunately, it is difficult to raise an adequate level of funds for prevention education with most donors and foundations interested in funding our crisis intervention efforts. It is a difficult balancing act.

Here is where Art Van steps into the picture! Over the next couple of months, Art Van Furniture will match, up to $15,000, donations made to our prevention education program dollar for dollar! That means a total of $30,000 can be raised to help this vital, lifesaving prevention work in our local schools. Now that is stepping up to the plate in a big way!

One in One

It's a familiar statistic: one in three girls will be battered by their dating partner. This is especially visible in playwright Eve Ensler's interviews with more than 200 women. With humor and grace, the piece celebrates women's sexuality and strength. HAVEN is proud to be one of the beneficiaries of proceeds from this year's performances, which include the following dates:

- Friday, February 11, 2011
- Saturday, February 12, 2011

Both performances take place in 1500 Social Science Building (SSB). Showtime is at 6:30 pm, with doors opening at 6 pm.

Tickets are $5 in advance or $7 at the door for students and $10 in advance or $12 at the door for community members. For more information or to purchase tickets, please contact Shareia N. Carter at (313) 583-6445 or snc\(at\)umd.umich.eduumd.umich.edu).

February, which is Teen Dating Violence Awareness Month. But a far more pressing statistic is that one in one of us is a witness to intimate partner violence and sexual assault.
