

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Melissa Bunker (313) 886-9074

HAVEN PRESENTS VOICES OF MEN URGING MEN TO SPEAK OUT AGAINST VIOLENCE
One-man play about violence against women, using humor and celebrity male voice impressions

PONTIAC, MI, SEPTEMBER 6, 2011.....HAVEN is presenting an engaging and innovative way to start a community conversation about men's role in domestic violence. National presenter Ben Atherton-Zeman will be performing his one man play "Voices of Men" which uses humor and celebrity male voice impressions to educate about men's violence against women on September 20.

"Voices of Men" takes place at 6:00 p.m. at HAVEN offices, 30400 Telegraph Road Suite 151 Bingham Farms. The fee is $15.

To reserve your place, please visit www.tinyurl.com/3tpw9na. Please call (248) 334-1284 ext. 360 if you have any questions.

Called an "educational, humorous and dynamic performance", "Voices of Men" features Atherton-Zeman dressed in colorful costumes, doing celebrity impersonations while words and images flash on the screen behind him. The performance includes graphic representations of violence.

Ben Atherton-Zeman who refers to himself as a feminist, actor and husband, has given performances and presentations in 35 states, Canada, China and the Czech Republic. He is a spokesperson for the National Organization for Men Against Sexism.

HAVEN is Oakland County's center for the prevention and treatment of domestic violence and sexual assault. The nationally recognized non-profit organization is a leader in preventing and treating the trauma of domestic violence and sexual assault, through community education and empowerment of survivors. HAVEN believes that everyone deserves to live without fear.

For more information about HAVEN and its programs and services, visit www.haven-oakland.org or call (248) 334-1284.

###