

Documents to Bring With You

Every bit of information helps. Try to bring as many of these documents with you as you possibly can.

- All bank account numbers, credit union and 401(k) information.
- Extra key for the safe deposit box and info.
- Copies of car titles and past 3 years' income tax returns.
- Deeds to joint or individual property.
- Copies of outstanding loans, amount of monthly payments.
- Joint and individual credit cards with balances. Get your name removed from joint cards if possible.
- Pay stubs for at least 2 months.
- Copies of your and the abuser's signature cards at the bank, CDs and bonds.
- Copy of any Personal Protection Order (PPO).
- Copies of all insurance policies, wills, trust fund or pension fund information.
- Abuser's Social Security number, driver's license number, work address and number; addresses and numbers of friends; criminal history; license plate number and recent pictures.
- Unless an attorney advises you not to, if you leave, take all personal assets and half of all joint assets (for example, bonds, checking account, credit card).
